FARMERS TO FORM GIANT WHEAT POOL

Formation of a gigantic wheat pool in the United States, whereby the farmers will virtually control marketing and selling the grain, is one of the more important things to be planned by farmers attending a three-day session of the national board of farm organization at Columbus, Ohio.

More than 150 farmers, representing, it was said, practically every agricultural state in the Union, were in attendance.

The board of farm organizations now control 1,500 grain elevators in the country and does a yearly cooperative farm business of $2,000,000,000, according to officials.

Plans are to take over, or build, grain elevators at every point where wheat is shipped. It will be possible, it was said, to control 40 per cent of the country's wheat output.

Congressional regulation of the packing industry and action to compel railroads to provide sufficient refrigerator cars for transportation of perishable foodstuffs is asked in regulations adopted by delegates to the National Board of Farm Organizations.

It was said that those in attendance represent farmers' organizations in the country with a total membership of 2,000,000.

Neglect of railroads to provide enough refrigerator cars, the resolution declared, tends to centralize the distribution of perishable foods in great private corporations and make it inconvenient and "generally impossible for farmers' organizations to market their produce and compete with the members of the American Institute of Packers."

About every ten days in the year a woman will announce that she will NEVER buy another thing from an agent. And the very next day some agent will get his foot in the door, and talk her into buying some useless doo-dad for a quarter down and a quarter a week.

WILL HEAR CONTEST CASE

Governor Edwin P. Morrow has appointed Judge Allan N. Cisco, of Grayson, as special judge to hear the election contest in Beattyville Thursday between W. L. Kash of Jackson county, and his cousin, Sam Hurst, of Beattyville, for the Republican nomination for circuit judge in the Twenty-third Judicial District.

A counter-contest brought by Mr. Hurst is signed by twenty-one of the leading lawyers of the state and contains forty-eight pages of charges of corruption, fraud, intimidation and miscounts by election officers and seeks a recount in many precincts in Lee, Estill and Breathitt counties.

Both sides charge large contributions by large corporations to the other which were used in vote buying and other methods of corrupting the voters, even to the participation of Democrats in all sections of the district in the primary. The contest promises to be the most bitter battle in Republican ranks ever witnessed in the mountains.

A. Floyd Byrd, of Lexington; Ryland C. Musick and C. A. Back, of Jackson, will represent Mr. Kash while Hazelrigg and Hazelrigg, S. C. Turner, Hobson and Hobson, of Frankfort; A. R. Burnam, of Richmond; Samuel L. Wilson, of Lexington; J. F. Sutton, Gourney and Gourney, E. B. Rose, Carter D. Stamper, S. P. Stamper and G. P. Henergrass, of Beattyville; W. S. Hogge, M. H. Holiday, A. H. Patton, S. Strong and E. C. Hyden, of Jackson, and E. E. Hogg, of Versailles, will represent Mr. Hurst.

CHIC FALL SCARF

This smart scarf of seal plush comes Milady as jacket and scarf. Its belt and pockets give the satisfaction that is uncommon to scarfs and make it a pleasing evening wrap.

In story books and "from press and pulpit" the bride is always beautiful and the groom is stalwart. Why does not some smart author write a story of a fat bride and a skinny groom who live happily ever afterwards?
